Ms. Royer represents individuals and families to create, implement and maintain an estate plan to transfer wealth to the next generation, minimize death taxes, and provide peace of mind to clients and their families. She skillfully and compassionately assists fiduciaries in the administration of their loved one's estate or trust.

Ms. Royer also assists clients in business transactions including business formation, purchases and sales, employment agreements, and lease negotiations. She represents clients in residential and commercial real estate transactions as well.

Ms. Royer has consistently been recognized as Harrisburg Magazine's Simply the Best or Reader's Choice for Estate Planning. She frequently presents seminars on the importance of estate planning for individuals and families no matter how large or how small their estates may be.

Ms. Royer is a Charter Member of the Rotary Club of Susquehanna Township and continues to serve the Club as its Secretary. She is a past Board member of the Feel Your Boobies Foundation.

Ms. Royer lives in Susquehanna Township with her husband, Sean, and their son, Jett.
